

September 2023

DUPC Sunday Forum Series

9:45—10:45 AM, Shaw Room

Co-Hosted by the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging (DEIB) Committee

September

10

The History of Redlining in Monroe County
And How to Restore Housing Equity

Shane Wiegand, co-Director of the Antiracist Curriculum Project, will share how redlining policies shaped who lives in the city and who lives in the suburbs, as well as actions that can be taken to dismantle this arm of structural racism.

September

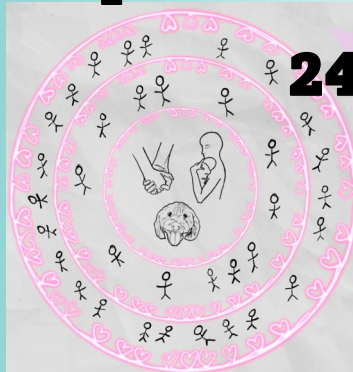

17

Power & Difference: A Framework for Change

Kathy Castania, author of the Opening Doors Curriculum and a lead facilitator and mentor to apprentices, will provide an overview of the philosophy and approach of the Opening Doors Institute to counter bias and enhance inclusion.

September

24

Crafting Community: What Builds Belonging,
What Drives Exclusion?

Join us for an exploration of our own experiences and tools for creating more cohesive communities with Gwen Olton, co-Director of the MK Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence.