Jesus' Inclusive Call - Spiritual Journeys

Susan Richane

Susan's spiritual journey has been one of "thin places," where the boundary between earth and another realm feels permeable. In the words of Father Gregory Boyle, "The Beloved is found everywhere and anywhere. The Beloved in whom we "live and move and have our being" dwells in all that gets thrown at us every day. This journey will be shared as windows to the Holy, through story, poetry and reflection.

Grania grew up in the Episcopal Church, but has lived in many locations and has belonged to Episcopal, Catholic, UCC, and Presbyterian churches. She has often sought answers in theological writings and prayer, and as a member of DUPC's Psalms Plus group, continues to seek understanding and learn from her Psalm Psisters. Her faith in the love of God has led her to amplifying that love through justice work.

Rev. Val Fowler

Currently serving as the Moderator for the DUPC Session, Val has been a life long Presbyterian, growing up in several congregations—each a great church to be a kid. That nourished a life-long appreciation for faith communities, going to seminary, and a life as a pastor. The blessings and challenges of his life shaped his love of God as revealed in the person and work of Jesus. And ... his dedication to children.

Born in a small town in Pakistan, Kehar's Spiritual journey began with a quiet but courageous yes to Christ at the age of 16. That choice carried him through valleys of danger, loss, and rejection, and across lands and churches—from Baptist and Brethren fellowships to a Presbyterian church in Bangkok, and finally to DUPC in 2024. His life has known many turns, but through every storm and silence, one light never dimmed: an unshakable faith in God.
